From Tuesday December 21, to Saturday December 25, 1762.

St. James's, December 25.

THE following Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Flint, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir John Glynne, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Flint, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the many ſignal and glorious Events which have appeared in the Dawning of your Reign.

Whether we conſider the Rapidity and Importance of your Conqueſts in every Part of the World where your Arms have appeared, the univerſal Joy and Gladneſs with which our Hearts are filled, by ſeeing Permanency added to Felicity, and your's and our moſt gracious Queen's domeſtick Happineſs by the Birth of his Royal Highneſs our Prince—And theſe Bleſſings, great as they are, (crowned with ſtill greater, even the Bleſſings of Peace) brought about by the Wiſdom of your Counſels, and Force of your Arms. Theſe are Events, we cannot altogether attribute to human Means, but, that the Divine Providence, whom you ſerve, hath directed your Majeſty's Councils and Arms.

May we, as in Gratitude bound to the beſt of Kings, by a dutiful and loyal Obedience, contribute all we can to render your Reign eaſy, and by living in brotherly Love and Charity one towards another, ourſelves happy, are the fervent Prayers and Wiſhes of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Flint.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of the Corporation of Wilton, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of your ancient Corporation of Wilton, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the ſincereſt Congratulations on Her Majeſty's ſafe Delivery of a Prince. An Event full of the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances to us and our Poſterity, of a Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings which this Kingdom has long enjoyed under your Illuſtrious Houſe.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, dread Sir, to teſtify our Joy at the unparalleled Succeſſes of your Arms in all Parts of the World, as they have at length reduced your Enemies to accept of ſuch Terms of Peace, as are glorious to your Majeſty, and advantageous to your Kingdoms.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, deſire to expreſs the higheſt Joy on the Complication of happy Events, which have lately reflected new Glory on your Majeſty, and ſhed the moſt benign Influences on theſe Kingdoms.

The Birth of a Prince, the Heir of your Majeſty's Crown, is an Event, eſpecially when attended with the Safety of our moſt gracious Queen, which muſt fill every loyal Heart with Joy, as it is the greateſt Addition of Security to us for our national Liberty and Privileges, and leads us to regard your Majeſty in the endearing Light of the Father of a Race of Kings, who ſhall be the Guardians of all that is dear to us, through many future Generations.

But this Event, deeply intereſting in itſelf, has been attended with Succeſſes the moſt Glorious, and Conqueſts the moſt Important; and has been followed by, what is far more agreeable than Conqueſt to your Majeſty's compaſſionate Heart, and to the Humanity of your Subjects, a Treaty for re-eſtabliſhing laſting Peace. While we expreſs our Gratitude to your Majeſty for your Concern to put a ſpeedy End to the Calamities of War, which your People felt ſeverely, though ſucceſsful beyond Example, permit us likewiſe to expreſs the perfect Approbation which we feel of the Principles on which the Treaty has been conducted. The Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Counſels, and a Spirit of true Moderation, have preſerved the Terms from being dictated by that inſatiable Ambition and Luſt of Conqueſt, which, inſpired commonly by Succeſſes much leſs Illuſtrious than have attended the Britiſh Arms, has proved the Ruin of many Nations; and have produced ſteddy Attention to what the true Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms demanded. Permit us to long for the happy Hour, when, by a Peace raiſed on the Foundation already laid, an immenſe Acceſſion of Territory ſhall be ſecured, all Occaſion of future Diſputes cut off, the Commerce of the Nation extended, the Sources of its Riches multiplied, and Advantages derived to Britain greater and more ſolid than have been obtained by any Peace which the Hiſtory of many paſt Centuries records.

That your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe may enjoy intire and permanent Happineſs, is our hearty Wiſh and fervent Prayer.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment of the ſaid Magiſtrates and Council, Aberdeen, Dec. 16, 1762. John Duncan, Provoſt.

Berlin, December 11. By the laſt Letters from Saxony, Major General Kleiſt was not yet returned from his Expedition into the Empire. The ſame Letters mention, that his Royal Highneſs Prince Henry was expected at Leipzig as this Day, where he intended paſſing a Week with his Pruſſian Majeſty. Hamburg, December 17. We learn from Dantzig, that the Ruſſian Troops, which ſtill remain in Pruſſia, having now ſold their Magazines, were to evacuate that Kingdom totally before the End of this Month, in order to return to Ruſſia.

Duſſeldorff, December 17. We hear there has been a great Tumult at Weſel, but do not yet know the Particulars. It is ſaid to have been appeaſed with great Difficulty; and that moſt of the Magiſtrates giſtrates have been ſent to Priſon. This Town is to be evacuated before the End of this Month; and the Palatine Troops, that are to enter in Garriſon here, are ready to march from Juliers and Duren on the firſt Notice.

Cologne, December 17. It is probable the Garriſon the French have had here ever ſince April 1757, will ſoon quit this Town, as the Commandant has delivered the Keys of the City to the Burgher Maſters; alſo the Poſts on the Ramparts, and the Artillery they had taken out of our Arſenal.

A Reform has already been made in the Corps commanded by M. de Conflans, quartered in the Dutchy of Juliers, of 20 Men per Company; which has made Traveling very dangerous.

Liege, December 18. Four Battalions of French Militia paſſed this Place the 15th, in their Return to France. Yeſterday the Privy-Council received, from the Court of Bruſſels, requiſitorial Letters for the Paſſage of ſix Diviſions of Auſtrian Troops coming from the Low Countries. The Number of Men in each Diviſion is not ſpecified; but it is ſaid each Diviſion has fourteen Carts with Baggage. They were to begin their March the 15th; and it is expected they will arrive on our Territories To-Day.

We have in the Fauxbourgs, and in the neighbouring Towns and Villages of this City, four Squadrons of Dauphin Cavalry, and four of Chap's Dragoons. Roial Piedmont is at Huy, but receive their Forage from hence; and as ſoon as theſe twelve Squadrons have conſumed the Magazines the French have in this State, they are to continue their March to France.

Hague, December 21. We hear from Madrid, that the King of Spain has granted a yearly Penſion of Ten Thouſand Livres to the Widow of Don Velaſco, who ſo bravely defended the Moro Fort at the Havannah; and has given his Son a Title of Nobility in Caſtile, which he is to bear by the Name of the Marquis of Fort Moro. His Catholick Majeſty has likewiſe given Directions, that there ſhould be always, for the Future, one Ship in his Royal Navy, of the Name of Velaſco.

By the Accounts received here from the Empire, the Pruſſian Detachments were returning into Saxony, with the Contributions which they had raiſed during their late Expedition.

This Day Baron Wittorff, Envoy Extraordinary from the Landgrave of Heſſe, had a private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland.
